(a) whether Government have taken a decision to set up a National Commission to look into the problem of bonded labour;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether prominent social workers and other representing organisations working amongst bonded labour would be nominated thereon; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WELFARE (SHRI RAMJI LAL SUMAN): (a) to (d). A proposal to set up a National Commission on Bonded Labour is under examination.

Postponement of DMC and MCD elections

*50. SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:
SHRI ATAL BIHARI VAJPAYEE:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the elections of the Delhi Metropolitan Council and Delhi Municipal Corporation have been repeatedly postponed; if so, the dates of postponement alongwith reasons therefor;

(b) when were these elections held last and the reasons for denying the citizens of Delhi the right to choose their representatives to these civic bodies; and

(c) whether before appointing the key-officers for Delhi (e.g. the L. Governor, Chief Secretary, Police Commissioner), representatives of the people of Delhi in Lok Sabha are taken into confidence and will continue to be consulted in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI SUBODH KANT SAHAY): (a) and (b) The elections to the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) were last held in February, 1983. The four year term of the MCD was to expire on 7-2-1987. On 2-1-1987 the term of the MCD was extended by the Central Government by one year on the ground that elections to the Metropolitan Council, Delhi and the MCD should be held simultaneously. This extended period was further extended on 24-12-87 till 7-2-1989. On 9.1.1989 the term was further extended by one year beyond 7-2-1989 on the ground that the Central Government was considering the question of reorganising the administrative and municipal set up in Delhi. On 6-1-1990, the MCD was superseded for a period of 4 months by the Central Government inter alia on the ground that the MCD has persistently made defaults in the performance of the duties imposed by it under the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957. This period of supersession was extended by 4 months in May, 1990, again in September, 1990 and subsequently by another 4 months in January, 1991. The present extended period of supersession is to expire on 5-5-1991.

The last elections to the Metropolitan Council of Delhi were held on 5-2-1983. The term of the Council was to expire on 16-3-1988. On 24-12-1987 the Central Government extended the term of the Council by a period of one year beyond 16-3-1988 on the ground that the Central Government was considering the question of reorganising the administrative set up in Delhi. This period was further extended by one year on 9-1-1989 on the same ground. On the basis of a report from the Administrator Delhi the President suspended for a period of 4 months from 13-1-1990 the operation of certain provisions of the Delhi Administration Act, resulting in dissolution of the Council. The period of suspension of operation of these provisions of the Delhi Administration Act has been extended further on 10-5-1990, 12-9-1990 and 10.1.1991 for
